To Whom It May Concern:

It is an honor to write this recommendation on behalf of Mr. Jack Bullock and "A Baseline View". Mr. Bullock's website is simply the best in southern Illinois. The website is a tremendous resource for me as a head coach. It provides me with team, tournament, and shootout schedules, which are so important for scouting purposes. The website also keeps an accurate account of team standings and game scores. Mr. Bullock is very thorough in his coverage of each team in the South, and I am confident that he is capable of covering even more conferences if those schools would cooperate.

Jack Bullock has garnered the respect of coaches, officials, administrators, and fans all over Illinois with how hard he works to produce "A Baseline View". Jack attends games himself, and has always been extremely professional during post-game interviews. His articles are objective and also seem to frequently praise student-athletes for exceptional effort and performance. He also gives additional publicity to our local athletes with his All-Area teams. This is a nice feather-in-the-cap of any athlete that gets recognition on the website.

Furthermore, it is without hesitation, that I would strongly recommend anyone interested in Illinois high school basketball to support the best website in the state, "A Baseline View". I have no doubt that Jack Bullock will continue to produce a fantastic website and resource for all high school basketball fans across the state.
